

Spoof email from HMRC

It has recently come to my attention that there appears to be a spoof E-mail being circulated which poses as having been sent out from HMRC. The E-mail either claims that you are entitled to a tax rebate or that you owe more money for tax that has been unpaid. Either of the E-mails require you to click on a link and then enter ALL of your bank details.

I know of 2 people so far who have been clever enough to identify that this E-mail is not genuine and have reported it to myself. Please would you be kind enough to disseminate this message to as many people as possible, as I am concerned that people will enter their bank account details and thus, possibly become a victim of crime.
